WHSCC INVESTIGATES FATALITY

Saint John: THE WHSCC is investigating a workplace accident that claimed the life of a 50-year old man from St. Quentin.

François St. Pierre, a labourer with the Town of St. Quentin, died Tuesday as a result of injuries sustained when the bucket of a loader he was working on fell on top of him.

A WHSCC officer was dispatched to the scene as soon as the accident was reported.

An investigation is ongoing to determine whether there were violations to the Occupational Health and Safety Act.

ABOUT THE WHSCC

The WHSCC administers no-fault workplace accident and disability insurance for employers and their workers, funded solely through assessments on employers. The WHSCC is committed to the prevention of workplace injuries and accidents through education and the enforcement of the Occupational Health and Safety Act.
